

Abstract

This project “SG Fitness Freaks” is an android application which manages the records of all the students enrolled in the gym. It manages the customers in an easier way. The administrator, is able to view all the members of fitness centre as well as their details. The basic structure of the system as Follows.

This project manages the gym members, the personal details and their goal that they want to achieve. This system also maintains the client details, to provide the reports regarding the progress of their body.

This app is very easy to understand and operate as it is very user friendly. The owner can now perform all the tasks easy with the help of this app and the task became very easy now which he used to do manually with the help of book.